

Parental authorization form

The country to which you are traveling requires that minors (anyone under the age of 18) present a Parental Authorization Form at the airport or when checking into hotels indicating that the participant has permission to travel with the group.

This form must be completed and notarized in the presence of a notary public within 30 days of departure. You must take this form with you on tour. Do not send it to EF.

Additional details may be needed in addition to this form. For further information, please visit travel.state.gov
