Anyone can see the world.

YOU'RE GOING TO EXPERIENCE IT.

As you can see, your EF tour includes visits to the places you've learned about in school. That's a given. But it's so much more than that. Immersing yourself in new cultures—surrounded by the people, the language, the food, the way of life—creates inspirational moments that can't be listed in an itinerary. They can only be experienced.

And the experience begins long before you get your passport stamped and meet your Tour Director in your arrival city. It begins the moment you decide to go. Whether it's connecting with other travelers on Facebook, Twitter, or Instagram, or delving deeper into your destinations with our personalized learning experience, weShare, the excitement will hit you long before you pack your suitcase.

When your group arrives abroad, everything is taken care of so you can relax and enjoy the experience. Your full-time Tour Director is with your group around the clock, handling local transportation, hotels, and meals while also providing their own insight into the local history and culture. Expert local guides will lead your group on sightseeing tours, providing detailed views on history, art, architecture, or anything you may have a question about.

When your journey is over and you're unpacking your suitcase at home, you'll realize the benefits of your life-changing experience do not end. They have just begun.

@EFtours I attribute my college semester abroad to the love for travel I discovered on an EF Tour in high school #traveltuesday

What you'll experience on your tour

Day 1: Fly overnight to Brazil

Day 2: Rio de Janeiro

- Meet your Tour Director at the airport in Rio de Janeiro, which has evolved from a Portuguese outpost on the edge of the New World to one of the greatest cities in South America. While here, marvel at the elegant colonial and neo-classical architecture that endures amid its soaring skyscrapers. Here you'll see the the Paço Imperial, which once served as the royal palace and seat of government.

Day 3: Rio de Janeiro

- Take a guided tour of Corcovado. Board a cog-wheel that carries you into Tijuca National Park to the top of the 2,400-foot-tall Corcovado (Hunchback) Mountain. This 8,000-acre rainforest was once stripped bare of its native vegetation by coffee and sugar cane plantations. Today it remains one of the last remnants of the Atlantic Rainforest that once dominated the southern coast of Brazil. At the top stands the statue of Christ the Redeemer, one of the most famous images of Rio de Janeiro. Weighing more than 1,000 tons, the statue appears to gaze across the bay with welcoming outstretched arms. Some say it looks as if Christ is preparing to dive into the waters below. From here, you can enjoy a magnificent 360-degree view of Rio de Janeiro's natural beauty.

- Visit a Samba school.
- Participate in a Samba lesson.

Day 5: Rio de Janeiro

This was an incredible experience. It was my first trip to South America and I would highly recommend it to all. The guides were knowledgeable, friendly and patient. It was an excellent value too because there were extras thrown in that I was expecting to pay for.
